For specific inquiries, customers should contact their inspector. • All service lines within Planning and Development (City Planning & Policy, Development Approvals, and Building Safety) remain open but workforce has been impacted significantly. • All application types and development agreements continue to be processed, though delays are possible. • Priority files are those that keep Calgarians employed and businesses operating. If you have applications that are currently in that are not moving towards construction phase in the short term, contact approvals@calgary.ca • File Managers in Community Planning have authority to move files along with support from CPAG partners, staff may reach out to applications for additional info and plans in digital formats. 	All in-person engagement activities have also been cancelled until April 30. Opportunities to gather public input into City projects will still be available online. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The City is relying on Skype as the preferred remote meeting software. • Please try to accommodate requests from City staff to move meetings to an online format. • With numerous people out of the office, do not rely on voicemail to contact file managers or CPAG team. If unable to be reached by phone, follow up with direct e-mail. • The City asks if you are suspending activity on a construction site to notify them by calling 311. Building inspectors will attend multi-family and high-rise sites that would have higher risk to public safety should activity be stalled. Inspectors will review public access, loose debris, and site security. • Project Suspension Checklist can be found here.

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • April 6th Bulletin - CAC Public Infrastructure will no longer request paper inspector sets for subdivision construction inspections as of April 9th. No action is required by consultants, as this is an internal process change at the City. Performance issues associated with this change can be communicated to approvals@calgary.ca • CCC and FAC are now email compatible. The documents can be found here. Some additional criteria is required to maintain the integrity of the process, which is outlined in this bulletin. • UDO – system updates are temporarily delayed, and this includes changes to the Tiering and Securities. While they will not be seen in UDO, a manual process is in place to apply the revised T&S. • Public Input remains an essential component of the City’s approval process. Citizens will continue to be informed via usual channels while awareness is also being promoted on the City’s Development Map. • April 14th Update- City inspectors will call before arriving on site to allow time for social distancing preparations (two metres). OHS will be notified of construction sites not observing COVID-19 protocols. • City Council has approved an extension to the secondary suite amnesty period to Dec 31, 2021.
